THEME

During the past centuries science has made tremendous progress. The strides made in the past fifty years have been phenomenal; those of the past decade almost unbelievable. Since most of us entered high school we have read and heard much of the greatest physical force
yet discovered---Atomic Power.
It behooves us now, to improve and intensify our scientific study so that this monster, that the atomic scientists have brought us, may prove a blessing instead of the destruction of mankind.

DEDICATION

To ROWE C. WHITAKER, for his untiring efforts and his devoted service to the students of Washington High School, we sincerely dedicate this 1950 issue of the PACKROMAK.

CLASS of '50

Before us lies our future like a flickering, beckoning light.
Each time we try to grasp it, it flits away into vagueness.
But as we farther journey, brighter shall grow this gleam.
No storm or cloudburst will extinguish it,
For too long have we prepared to take our fate into our own hands.

Twelve years now, it has been.
Years of heartaches, problems and joys solved together.
Closer than ever we feel, for this is the time of parting.
In later years we may meet again,
Not all, but one or two, and exchange a greeting; nothing more, for time will destroy our comradeship, and fate will leave her mark.

So, let us lift our faces to God and ask him for guidance, though useless we may be, and far may be our journey.

Yes, graduation is upon us. We must leave the haven of our school and home and venture into a world of,---we know not what.

Nancy Everette ... Class Poet

Class Prophecy

This is Fullah Mudd, your obnoxious reporter, coming to you over Station W C A D (We Catch All Dirt) owned and operated by Ben Hodges and Jimmie Roberson.

Well, Folks, the big news today is the gigantic, super colossal clan gathering of the Class of 1950. The Class planned at their graduation to meet together here at the site of the old High School building that they graduated from exactly 19 years ago, which makes this, of course, 1969.

Hardly anyone goes through this section of town anymore. Since the City has grown to such a vast metropolis, the older section has been abandoned. It can be seen on super highway #49. But before I go on, here is a word from our sponsors.

Don't start the day off wrong. Get the morning off to a cheery beginning by drinking Swindell's Syncopating Sarsaparilla, bottled locally by Betty Ann Swindell, Inc.

Back to the news. Yes, Folks, this is a day to be long remembered and discussed by the residents of this fair City. I'll try to get some of the lowdown on the celebrities gathered here today. As you know, I still use my Junior G-Man methods so we should get some low down soon.

It has been rumored that Miss Patric Xylmnopqrst, better known to us as Peggy Brooks, the Supersonic Opera Singer, is here today.

Wait, that flash of metal, I'd know it anywhere. It must be, yes, it is, General Croom Rodman, the West Point man. That flash was the General's beribboned chest. I believe his wife, the former Francis Woolard, is with him. She does not look a bit like a Grammar School Teacher.

Over to our left on a soap box is none other than Nancy Lee Smith, woman diplomat and politician. There has been some talk of her running for President next year on the theatre ticket.

Coming towards us now, in our concealed box, is that kindly, sweet faced woman close to the hearts of all of us. Yes, it's the head of the Welfare Department, Mrs. Sam Blount, the former Gwen Richardson. It is simply amazing that she can have a family and career too.

I'll put in this little plug for free. Lee Knott has framed his first million and it will be on display Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays; for a nominal sum, of course.

Seth Cherry is in such good form that his manager, Waverly Chesson is thinking of running him in the Kentucky Derby.

I thought you might like to know that Mary Jo Paul has just been released from the Smithsonian Institute, where she has been undergoing a series of examinations. Her special nurse and companion, Bennie Farquaharson, stays constantly by her side.

Miss Emily Bowen, the outstanding illustrator for Esquire, Junior, a currently popular magazine owned by Bud Lynch and J. R. Jones, is here with part of her staff including Florence Williams, short-story writer and Tillie Moore and Gladys Tripp. Also several models from Esquire, Junior, can be seen languishly sauntering around, namely, Sondra Sheppard, Peggy Cooper and Norma Everette.

Tyndall Alligood and his orchestra can be heard every night at the "Run Inn," a small night club operated by Guy Peede and Ray Everette.

Again, Time out for the Sponsor. Remember, if your nerves are jangled, listen in every night at 7:30 to "Dream with Jean" a five minute program of songs you will want to forget, with Jean Clark vocalist, sponsored by Edwards Pain Killer put up locally by The Grover Edwards Chemical Company.

Back to the news. Among the not too well known, but rising businessmen here today are Delmar Alligood and Durwood Hodges, who have just opened for business their new Trans-Continental Bus line.

Be sure to read "Advice to the Lovelorn" by Dixie Ingalls and Dot Roberson in the "International Times."

Also be sure to visit Baker's Bargain Basement on Berkshire Boulevard in Boston, (Baby) where you will see Reba Tetterton modeling the ever popular gownless evening straps. Incidentally, that's Estelle Baker of Baker's Bargain Basement, etc.

You will be interested to note that Pat Tankard, Joan Youmans and Elise Taylor have incorporated their popular group of chain stores. More Glamour Shops.

Peggy Sparrow has been promoted to Head Stewardess of Airlines, Inc. The world renowned scientist, author and scholar, Betty Ramsey, has gotten away from her pressing engagements long enough for this reunion.

At long last Mr. J. T. Kornegay has retired from his honorable position as Principal of W. H. S. The school board has selected an able home town boy to take over. You all know Billy Asby. They finally decided on him after considering all the experience of running the school he acquired while there as a student.

Nancy Everette, the up and coming poet and author, has another book ready for press. Those eminent scientists, J. T. Emery and L. M. Wallace are now working on formula XYZ-10.

Betty Ellington, Billionairess, has just married her fourth millionaire and the happy couple are going to Lower Slobovia for their honeymoon to see how the other half lives.

If you are ever in doubt about anything that is, just see Alice and Hazel Cherry. They are authorities on everything. Their offices are located in the Williams's building which was dedicated to Jake Williams who just left for his second Artic Expedition.

Any time you feel inclined to trip the light fantastic, waltz down to Swindell's Dancery. Get expert instruction from Mary Ann Swindell.

Flash! Joan Patton has just been made head traveling saleswoman for Revlon Cosmetic Company. Good luck Gal!

Vera Carney has entered the finals of the Mrs. America contest. Here's hoping.

It's never too late to learn. Stop by Geraldine Bridgeman's Secretarial School and brush up on your shorthand and typing. Miss Bridgeman is ably assisted by Virginia Upton, Marion Leggett, Hilda Mizelle and Lou Brantley.

That well known producer and director, Billy Woolard, is back in town. It is said that he is looking for a new type leading lady. It may be you.

Barbara Woolard, the world famous athlete and reporter, will stop in England for an exhibition before the crowned heads.

Star baseball player, J. P. O'Carroll, catcher for the New York Yankees, has just bought half interest in the club for a quarter of a million. He is a likely candidate for the National Sportsmanship Award. Keep an eye on this boy.

Another fellow to keep an eye on is Garland Homes. He recently received another honorary degree for outstanding work in surgery.

If you are out for entertainment, go to "The Track," the local race track run by Jimmie Pinkham and James Lupton.

Shain Jefferies is rapidly edging Frankenstein out of business and is on his way to becoming the nation's number 1 horror.

Need your work speeded up? See our efficiency expert, W. W. Webster. A sidelight on how W. W. Webster became an efficiency expert began when her husband took her over the threshold of a 4000 acre farm. But that's too long a story. Time out for a word from our sponsor.

Do you ever long for something to fill your sweet tooth? We have exactly what you want. Jackson's Jumping Jellybeans manufactured by Frances Jackson and Company. Get some today.

We have a United Press bulletin that informs us that Betty Hall has been voted "The Girl I would most like to be marooned on a Desert Island with"---

We have also received word that Rudolph Dixon, pro football player and his side kick, Charlie Smith have made so much money in football that they are retiring to become gentlemen farmers.

Well, our time is running out but I'd like to say that all this illustrious class could not be outstanding. Some are happily married such as Julia Hoyt, Marie Corey, Donnie Everson and Marilyn Watson. Others have become helpfully situated in nursing: such as Jean Lane, Lillian Leggett, Mary Manning and Jois Woolard. So wipe away that furtive tear for the days gone by and view with pride the well adjusted individuals produced from this seat of learning.

This is Fullah Mudd - signing off. Listen in tomorrow for a blow by blow description of the reunion itself because this has been a few tidbits on the personal life of the class. Any similarity to persons living or dead is purely coincidental.

Last Will & Testament

In the name of God, Amen:

We the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty of Washington High School, of the City of Washington, and being subjugated to the laws and doctrines of the State of North Carolina, and of the United States, being of sound mind but appreciating the uncertainties of life, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us during a period of temporary optimism.

Item I. To the Junior Class, our rightful heirs, we give bequeath and entrust the following parts of our dilapidated estate:

1. The Senior privileges, few but dignified.
2. The protection of the battle-scarred Senior Steps.
3. Our Alma Mater, our Spirits and Hopes.
4. The decorating of the Senior seats in chapel.
5. Seniorhood, dignity, and appreciating the Junior-Senior Banquet are hereby left to our rightful heirs.

Item II. To our good friends, the Sophomore Class, we leave our patience, so that they may endure the on-coming Seniors.

Item III. To the Freshman Class we leave encouragement.

Item IV. To our Superintendent, Principal and Teachers we leave the peaceful quietness caused by our absence.

Item V. These personal belongings when divided by our executors shall be appportioned under Item V. thus: We bequeath and devise as follows:

1. Emily Bowen and Bud Lynch leave their freckles to Clyde Roberson and to any unfreckled Juniors.

2. David Alligood and Hazel Cherry leave their likeable disposition to Joann Miltenberger, Cecil Lane and Annie Mae Woolard.

3. Jimmy Roberson and Marie Corey leave their cuteness to Alma Nelson and Sandy Jennette.

4. Reba Tetterton leaves her good looks and way with the men to Kay Tankard.

5. Garland Homes leaves his athletic ability to Pappy Fowle.

6. Billy Woolard and Robert Whitehurst gladly will the remainder of their buses to Clyde Cole and Charles Foreman.

7. Shain Jeffries and Weeden Webster leave their lasting wit to Jo Whitley and Billy Byram.

8. Seth Cherry and Gwen Richardson sorrowfully give up their laziness to Dot Dixon and Hallett Deans.

9. Mary Ann Swindell gives her pep to the Junior Class.

10. Pat Tankard leaves her good looking clothes to Ellen Sellers.

11. Lee Knott's sports ability and gripes are left to Charles Hoyt.

12. Bennie Farquharson and Betty Ramsay leave their short romances to Elizabeth Jones and Jocelyn Oakley.

13. Barbara Woolard's unceasing labor on the Packromak is left to any deserving Junior.

14. Tyndall Alligood leaves his band talent to Tommy Campbell.

15. Lou Brantley's hook shots are left with care and dignity.

16. Waverly Chesson and Linwood Woolard leave their places in the stag line to June Long Capehart.

17. Nancy Smith and Billy Asby leave their leadership ability to the whole Junior Class.

18. Sondra Sheppard and Dot Roberson leave their winning smiles to Nancy Roberson and Joann Miltenberger.

19. Ben Hodges leaves his gentleness to Tommy Woolard.

20. Florence Williams and Bobby Hardison's romance is left to Mildred Lillard and Eddie Wells.

21. Croom Rodman's manly physique and good looks are left to Earl Robbins.

22. Vera Carney's complexion and eyes are left to Katherine McCluer.

23. Jake Williams leaves his reckless driving to Willie Woolard and Jacob Williamson.

24. The quietness of Geraldine Bridgeman and Jois Woolard is left to Thelma Harris and Dorothy Asby.

25. Tillie Moore and Rosemary Haddock's good times are left to Nancy Roberson and Ann Toler.
26. Tillie and Frances Woolard's sweetness is left to Doris Tetterton and Hilda Scott.
27. The scientific minds of L. M. Wallace, Earl Pilgrim and J. T. Emery are left to Sam Evett and Saunders Bailey.
28. Jimmy Pinkham's and Marilyn Watson's true hearts are left to Joyce Tripp and Warren Browning.
29. Grover Edwards, Gladys Tripp and Marion Leggett bequeath their giggles to Sally Alligood, Mary Ruth Hollis and Billy Singleton.
30. Betty Ann Swindell and Joan Patton leave their space on the basketball court to Janet Hodges and Margie Brown.
31. Peggy Sparrow's domestic ability is left to Monna Jay Toler.
32. Annie Jean Clark and Peggy Brooks leave their enchanting voices to Louise Dail.
33. Estelle Baker leaves her dancing ability to Charles Morris.
34. J. R. Brown's, Norma Everette's and Peggy Cooper's flirtatious ways are left to Chip Harrell, Phyllis Alligood and Mary Alice Cherry.
35. J. R. Jones' and Doris Ann Hall's friendliness is left to Stuart Moore, Carl Woolard and Doris Hodges.
36. Bobby Cooper's and Nancy Everett's gift of gab is left to Darrell Little.
37. Betty Ellington's home hospitality is left to a party lover.
38. The position of Frances Jackson as Senior Class President is left to Bobby Toler.
39. Betty Hall, Dixie Ingalls and Julia Hoyt wish to some of the wishful Juniors a diamond (Someday).
40. J. P. O'Carroll's way with the women and his baseball love is left with faith to Charlie Cherry.
41. Jean Lane and Lillian Leggette leave their secret admirers a secret.
42. Joan Youman's lover can be destroyed by any one Junior.
43. Ray Everette, Susie Jackson, Johnny Rae Hardison and Mary Slade leave their diplomas to any hard struggling Juniors.
44. James Lupton wills his Senior year to Ray Lane.
45. All the Senior girls wish Carl Willis, Mack Stalls, Seth Sutton and Harrell Powell good luck.
46. Chuck Cowan leaves his slow walk to some graceful Junior.
47. Rudolph Dixon and Charlie Smith wish you all could have their years of education. (in the Mecca.)
48. The Senior Class finally leaves Raymond Taylor.

On this 2nd. day of June 1950, we do appoint Mrs. Phebe Emmons and Mrs. Wiley C. Thompson, our class advisors, as executors of this sacred document.

In testimony, we the Class of 1950, have set our hand and seal to this our last will and testament on this 2nd. day of June, in the year of our Lord, 1950.

Class History

As we stand at the end of our High School life and turn our heads toward scenes forever past; as our memories linger on the days we have spent in familiar classrooms and gathering with our fellow-classmates and instructors-no longer shall we listen to the words to our teachers nor to the voices of those familiar to us-yet deeply in our hearts are embedded the memories of those days, which shall not soon depart.

We entered the Freshman Class with a feeling of dignity-yet stretching before us was seemingly centuries before we should reach the climax of our intentions-the Senior Class.

Enthusiastically we entered the Sophomore Class. We had obtained our first taste of High School life and were anxious to proceed.

Coming closer to the end, we reached our Junior year. Here we had the experience of entertaining the Seniors in one of the most outstanding events of our High School life-the Junior-Senior Banquet. This will be remembered and enrich our thoughts in later years. Another outstanding event of our Junior year was the presentation of our class rings.

We opened our Senior year with ambition, with a desire to go forward and with the predominant goal of making our final year the most outstanding, the most represented, and to establish it as a precedent upon the pages of our High School History. Our class from the beginning was firmly united, and among its ranks, with but few exceptions, could be found those who had followed us in previous years.

From the beginning of this great year we held our class meetings and began organization. Our privileges, after they had been drawn up and submitted to Mr. Kornegay for his signature, were granted us.

Of course the Junior-Senior Banquet was the most important occasion, important because it marked the final gathering of the Junior Class and Senior Class and their teachers. Here was witnessed one of the most enjoyable occasions of our High School Life.

The Junior-Senior Banquet marked the coming end. Before us was class night and graduation. So far we had been successful, success that was brought by continuous labor.

A great part of our success we might attribute to our instructors, for no praise my feeble word could give them would be too high. They have striven to bring out character as well as intellect. No longer shall we listen to their warning words-yet deeply in our hearts have sunk their lessons. We thank them for their kind and ever watchful care and shall always cherish their memory and teachings.

As we near the end of twelve years of joy and sadness together, there is somewhat of a cloud over our parting. As we say goodbye to our classmates that have been joined with us so long; so often met and mingled thoughts in friendship; so often played and worked together, that it seems like breaking our hearts to separate us now. Yet we must leave and launch our fate upon the sea of life to college or to work.

We have loved each other; we have esteemed each other; and now from each other we must part.

To The Juniors

As we leave the halls of High School days
It is with deep, but fond regret.
For here we've shared the joys of school,
And you Juniors, we'll never forget.

To you we wish success and luck.
And the best of everything 'ever.
For companions you've been, through thick and thin, Forget you? We could Never!
